Academy School Tournament
 by FREDERICK R. KUHN, Coach, Mercersburg Academy

The sport is growing in the Academy field, in the East, especially, and the calibre of wrestling has been improving, due to better competition, coaching clinics, summer wrestling schools and camps. The Academies will soon be able to hold their own with the better high school teams. Sixteen schools were represented by 101 candidates. They wrestled a total of 102 bouts to determine the individual and team championships. The tournament was held on two mats at Lehigh University on Friday and Saturday, March 2 and 3, 1951.

Seven schools had representatives win individual championships. The Hill School of Pottstown, Pa. had two first place winners, Wyoming Seminary of Scranton, Pa. won two firsts, St. Benedict's, Valley Forge, Lawrenceville, N. J., Worcester, Mass. and Peddie of N. J. each placed one champion. Mercersburg, perennially near the top, failed to win a first place.

The team trophy was won by the Hill team with a total of 37 points. Wyoming Seminary finished second with 23 points, and Lawrenceville surprised by earning 19 points for third place.

The coaches trophy for the outstanding wrestler in the tournament was awarded to Andrew Kaul, wrestling in the 137-pound class representing Hill school. Kaul finished first at 128 pounds in 1950, and first at 121 pounds in 1949, second at 115 pounds in 1948.

By FREDERICK R. KUHN, Coach, Mercersburg Academy

For the first time in seventeen years of the Lehigh University Interscholastic tournament two teams were tied for the championship, Hill School and Wyoming Seminary each with 23 points.
Nineteen schools from six states participated and were represented by 98 wrestlers. The meet was held March 7 and 8.
Blair School finished third with 22 points before good crowds in Grace Hall. Eight schools won individual championships with Hill the only team to win two first places. A total of 37 falls were recorded during the tourney.
Constantine Filpos of Valley Forge M.A. was voted the outstanding wrestler, repeating his 1951 championship in the 123-pound class. He notched three falls to win.
