Hill School, of Pottstown, is the winner of the 1964 Prep Wrestling Tournament at Lehigh University.

This will come as a surprise to Milton Hershey, for the chocolate towners left Bethlehem last Saturday believing they had a 63-63 tie with Hill and a share of the title for the second straight season.

Scoring Error Discovered

A protest was lodged, however, and at noon today Lehigh officials announced there had been a scoring error. Hill was entitled to the one extra point it needed to win and the final result has been changed to 64 for the Pottstown men against 63 for Hershey.

Hershey, which took the trophy for the first six months following the flip of a coin, must forward it to Pottstown.

Don Goodworth, Hershey 106 pound champion, was the best Most Outstanding Wrestler of the tourney. He pinned every man he met, including Fred
